- 15.2 In relation to the Customer's Confidential Information:
- 15.2.1 the Supplier shall treat as confidential all Confidential Information of the Customer supplied under a Contract. The Supplier shall not divulge any such Confidential Information to any person except to its own employees, and then only to those employees who need to know it for the Permitted Purposes. The Supplier shall ensure that its employees are aware of, and comply with, this clause 15; and
- 15.2.2 the Supplier may provide any subcontractor authorised under clause 19 with such of the Customer's Confidential Information as it needs to know for the Permitted Purposes, provided that such sub-contractor has first entered into a written obligation of confidentiality owed to the Supplier in terms similar to clause 15.2.1 (which the Supplier shall ensure is adhered to).
- 15.3 In relation to the Supplier's Confidential Information:
- 15.3.1 the Customer shall treat as confidential all Confidential Information of the Supplier contained or embodied in the Deliverables, or otherwise supplied to the Customer during the Term of a Contract;
- 15.3.2 the Customer shall not, without the prior written consent of the Supplier, divulge any part of the Supplier's Confidential Information to any person other than:
- (a) the Customer's Representative; and
- (b) other employees of the Customer who need to know it for the Permitted Purposes; and
- 15.3.3 the Customer undertakes to ensure that the persons mentioned in clause 15.3.2 are made aware, before the disclosure of any part of the Supplier's Confidential Information, that the same is confidential and that they owe a duty of confidence to the Customer in terms similar to clause 15.3.1 (which the Customer shall ensure is adhered to).
- 15.4 The restrictions imposed by clause 15.1, clause 15.2 and clause 15.3 shall not apply to the disclosure of any Confidential Information which:
- 15.4.1 is now in, or hereafter comes into, the public domain otherwise than as a result of a breach of this clause 15;
- 15.4.2 before any negotiations or discussions leading to a Contract was already known by the receiving party (or, in the case of the Customer, any of its Affiliates) and was obtained or acquired in circumstances under which the receiving party was (or, in the case of the Customer, the Customer and its Affiliates were) not bound by any form of confidentiality obligation; or
- 15.4.3 is required by law or regulation to be disclosed to any person who is authorised by law or regulation to receive the same (after consultation, if practicable, with the disclosing party to limit disclosure to such authorised person to the extent necessary).
- 15.5 Each party shall notify the other party if any of its staff connected with the provision or receipt of the Services becomes aware of any unauthorised disclosure of any Confidential Information and shall offer reasonable assistance to the other party, at that other party's reasonable cost, in connection with any enforcement proceedings which that other party may elect to bring against any person.
- 15.6 This clause 15 shall remain in full force and effect in the event of any termination of a Contract or any part of a Contract.
16. DATA PROTECTION
- 16.1 Each party agrees that, in the performance of its respective obligations under a Contract, it will comply with the provisions of the Data Protection Law, in each case to the extent it applies to each of them. Where used in this clause 16, the expressions data subject, personal data, personal data breach and process bear their respective meanings given in Data Protection Law.
- 16.2 The Supplier may process personal data on the Customer's behalf for the purposes of performing the Services and otherwise fulfilling its obligations under a Contract. The types of personal data that the Supplier is expected to process on the Customer's behalf will depend on the nature of the Deliverables to be provided and the nature of the Customer's business and System, but is likely to primarily consist of names and contact details of the Customer's employees.
- 16.3 Where the Supplier processes personal data on the Customer's behalf under or in connection with a Contract, it will do so only in accordance with the terms of the Contract and the Customer's documented instructions (unless otherwise required by law in which case the Supplier will, where permitted, inform the Customer of that legal requirement before processing).
- 16.4 The Customer warrants that:
- 16.4.1 it will only provide (or ensure the provision of) personal data to the Supplier where that personal data has been lawfully obtained and where the Customer is lawfully entitled to provide (or ensure the provision of) that personal data to the Supplier for the intended purpose and means of processing; and
- 16.4.2 any instructions given to the Supplier in accordance with clause 16.3 will be compliant with applicable Data Protection Law, be within the scope of the Supplier's obligations under the Contract and will not (if properly performed) place either the Supplier or the Customer in breach of their respective obligations under Data Protection Law, and the Customer will indemnify, keep indemnified and hold the Supplier harmless against all claims, demands, penalties, fines, actions, costs, expenses, losses and damages suffered or incurred by or awarded against the Supplier arising from or in connection with any breach by the Customer of this clause 16.4.
- 16.5 Where the Supplier processes any personal data on the Customer's behalf under or in connection with a Contract it will:
- 16.5.1 other than as permitted by Data Protection Law, not transfer or allow the transfer of that personal data outside the United Kingdom without the Customer's written consent;

- 16.5.2 ensure that any persons authorised to process the personal data are subject to a duty of confidence in respect of that processing;
- 16.5.3 implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, in compliance with the obligations imposed on the Supplier by Data Protection Law;
- 16.5.4 notify the Customer without undue delay on becoming aware of a personal data breach and cooperate with the Customer to resolve that issue; and
- 16.5.5 at the Customer's expense, provide the assistance that the Customer may reasonably require to assist it to comply with its obligations to keep that personal data secure, allow it to inform a regulatory authority or data subject of a personal data breach, conduct a data protection impact assessment, consult with the Information Commissioner regarding the relevant processing activities and/or respond to requests made by data subjects pursuant to Data Protection Law.
- 16.6 The Customer authorises the Supplier to engage sub-processors from time to time provided that the Supplier will notify the Customer of any intended changes concerning the addition or replacement of sub-processors and will impose upon any sub-processor (and ensure any sub-processor's compliance with) the terms of this clause 16 as if the processing being carried out by the sub-processor was being carried out by the Supplier (and the Supplier will be liable for the acts and omissions of its sub-processors as if they were the Supplier's own acts and omissions).
- 16.7 From time to time during the term of a Contract the Supplier will (upon written request from the Customer):
- 16.7.1 provide details in writing of its data processing activities carried out on the Customer's behalf; and
- 16.7.2 on reasonable notice allow the Customer (or its appointed auditor) to audit its compliance with these terms, subject to any reasonable requirements or restrictions that the Supplier may impose to safeguard the personal data it holds on behalf of other clients and/or avoid unreasonable disruption to the Supplier's business.
- 16.8 The Supplier will process personal data on the Customer's behalf only during the term of the relevant Contract (and following termination to the extent required to perform any post termination obligations or any other Contract). On the termination or expiry of any part of the Services or a Contract as a whole, the Supplier will either delete or return all personal data processed on the Customer's behalf in connection with the applicable Services and delete any copies (except to the extent retention is required by law or for record-keeping purposes).
- 16.9 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause 16 or otherwise in a Contract relieves either party of its own direct responsibilities and liabilities under Data Protection Law.
- 17. DEFECTS AND REMEDIATION
- 17.1 Except as provided in clause 17.3, the sole remedy for breach of the warranties under clauses 3.3, 4.2, 7.2 and 8.4 shall be:

- 17.2.1 in the case of Deliverables covered by Maintenance and Support, the Customer's sole and exclusive remedy (if any) shall be as set out in the Service Level Agreement; and
- 17.2.2 in any other case, if the Defect is material the Customer may treat the failure to remedy it as a material breach of the terms of the relevant Contract for the purposes of clause 20.3.2.
- 17.3 Defects in Supplier Hardware or System Implementation identified before acceptance shall be dealt with in accordance with the acceptance procedure set out in clause 3.2 or clause 8.3 (as applicable).
- 17.4 The Supplier does not warrant or guarantee that:

- 17.4.2 in the case of Supported Software, that any Defect which does not materially affect the Customer's operations using the Supported Software will be corrected before the issue of the next New Release.
- 17.5 The warranties set out in these terms (and any Order Form) are in lieu of all other express or implied warranties or conditions, including implied warranties or conditions of satisfactory quality and fitness for a particular purpose, in relation to the Contract. The Supplier specifically denies any implied or express representation that:
- 17.5.1 the System will be fit to operate in conjunction with any hardware items or software products other than with those hardware items and software products that are identified in the Documentation as being compatible with the System; or
- 17.5.2 the System or any Deliverables will operate uninterrupted or error-free.
- 17.6 Any unauthorised modifications, use or improper installation of the System or Deliverables by or on behalf of the Customer shall render all the Supplier's warranties and obligations under the Contract null and void.
- 17.7 The Supplier shall not be obliged to rectify any particular Defect if attempts to rectify such Defect (other than normal recovery or diagnostic procedures) have been made by the Customer's personnel or third parties without the permission of the Supplier.

- 18.1.4 any matter for which it would be unlawful for the parties to exclude liability.
- 18.2 The Customer acknowledges that any System implemented by the Supplier is a tool to enable accelerated compute of data and neither the System nor any Deliverables provided by the Supplier are to be solely relied upon in any critical situation.
- 18.3 Subject to clause 18.1, the Supplier shall not in any circumstances be liable whether in contract, tort (including for negligence and breach of statutory duty howsoever arising), misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent), restitution or otherwise, for:

- 19.1 Subject to clause 19.3, each Contract is personal to the parties and neither party shall assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, declare a trust of or deal in any other manner with any or all of its rights and obligations under a Contract without the prior written consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed).
- 19.2 Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.
- 19.3 The Supplier may assign any or all of its rights and/or subcontract any or all of its obligations under a Contract.

- 20.3.2 commits a material breach of any term of the Contract (other than failure to pay any amounts due under the Contract) and (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within a period of 30 days after being notified in writing to do so;
- 20.3.3 repeatedly breaches any of the terms of the Contract in such a manner as to reasonably justify the opinion that its conduct is inconsistent with it having the intention or ability to give effect to the terms of the Contract; or
- 20.3.4 makes an arrangement with or enters into a compromise with its creditors, becomes the subject of a voluntary arrangement, receivership, administration, liquidation or winding up, applies to court for, or obtains, a moratorium under Part A1 of the Insolvency Act 1986, is unable to pay its debts or otherwise becomes insolvent or suffers or is the subject of any restraint, execution, event of insolvency or event of bankruptcy or any other similar process or event, whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

- 20.8.2 each party shall as soon as reasonably practicable return all of the other party's equipment and materials, failing which, the other party may enter the relevant premises and take possession of them, provided, regarding the Customer's rights under this clause 20.8.2, that the Customer has (if appropriate) paid the Supplier in full for such equipment and materials. Until these are returned or repossessed, the party in possession shall be solely responsible for their safe keeping;
- 20.8.3 the Supplier shall promptly refund such portion of the Price (as the case may be) as relates to the period after expiry or termination on a pro rata basis;
- 20.8.4 as soon as reasonably practicable, the Supplier shall vacate the Customer's premises leaving them clean and tidy and removing any goods, materials or equipment belonging to it;
